Authorized Certificate

Our resorts partners have helped subsidized this reward certificate as except for the holidays, hotels and resorts are very rarely completely full. We are one of the largest travel and marketing companies in Mexico and the Caribbean. We specialize in helping resorts to introduce new potential long term customers to their properties and ask that the customer take a no obligation 90 minute introductory tour of one of our resort properties.

To qualify for this promotion, you must be either a married or cohabiting couple between the ages of 30 - 65; and with a combined annual income greater than $50,000. All clients must speak & understand English or Spanish and must not have attended a presentation by the same host resort in the last 12 months. Government imposed sales tax and incidentals are the responsibility of the recipient. Group travel is not permitted. This vacation certificate is valued at up to $980.00.

This travel award certificate is being used for the purpose of offering sales of vacation ownership.
